Church Cleaning: Calendar for next year will soon be out. Consider signing up for a week or two or a month.

Church School: Will meet from Noon to 12:30pm on Sundays.

Coffee Hour: We thank the Sisterhood for last week's coffee hour. Volunteers are still needed.

Holy Myrrhbearers Sisterhood. Movie night and meeting on Saturday, October 29th at 7pm, following Vespers.

Mirrors of Truth: We will meet again on October 25th, at 7pm.

Operation Christmas Child: Once again we are doing a collection for the Samaritan's Purse. We would like to surpass last year's 45 shoeboxes. So, please consider providing the following items

Parish Development Committee:

We are waiting for a quote for re-gilding of the fans, cross and gospel book. Additionally we will be ordering new vestments for our altar servers. Donations have already been made for the vestments ($450 and one color set), though more will be necessary. And as soon as St. Tikhon's Press publishes them, we will have new copies of the Liturgy Book to replace the ones we have which are disintegrating. The new books will include the texts for the St. Basil and Presanctified Liturgy as well as St. John Chrysostom.

Parish Council Workshop: Reminder to Parish Council members of Diocesan Workshop in Bethlehem on Saturday, October 29 offered by Church Mutual Insurance company on Directors and Officers responsibilities and liabilities. At least two members of every parish council, along with the rector, are required to attend.

Prayers: You are asked to remember in your prayers Catherine Maymon, mother of our Archbishop Mark, who suffered a stroke last Tuesday. His Eminence is with his siblings as Mrs. Maymon's condition becomes clearer and decisions are made about her care. Please remember all of them at what is a very difficult time and a very unclear situation.

Scrip: TODAY Thank you to all who participate. We invite those who do not to consider using this program which costs nothing other than what you would spend at the vendor and brings a financial reward to our parish at no additional cost to you.

Sister Vassa: Thursday October 20 at 7pm Sister Vassa (Larin) an Orthodox nun of the Russian Orthodox Church Outside Russia, born and raised in New York though currently resident in Vienna, Austria, will offer a lecture at St. Stephen's Orthodox Cathedral (OCA) on the topic of "Keeping Christ in Orthodoxy If you are in need of transport, the sisterhood is helping with transport for those in need of a ride. THERE IS A SIGNUP SHEET IN THE VESTIBULE.

Wrightstown Food Cupboard: Needs include pasta, tea, coffee, peanut butter, juices. Canned vegetables are especially needed at this time. Please help!

called Apocrypha or Deutero-canonical books.].

Ezra and Nehemiah.

These two books form part of a larger history which includes 1st and 2nd Chronicles (mentioned above). The theme of these books are the religious and political reorganization of Judah after the Return from the Babylonian Exile in the time of the Persian Empire (Kings Cyrus, Darius I, Ataxerxes I and Ataxerxes II). Attention is focused on the importance of the Temple and religious reforms for the preservation of the Jewish State.

The books can be divided into four parts: 1) The return of the first exiles in 537 B.C., followed by the rebuilding of the altar in 536 and the Temple in 516 (Ez. 1-6); 2) the return of a second group of exiles in 458, led by Ezra the Scribe, and the marriage reforms introduced by him (Ez. 7-10); 3) the return of Nehemiah and the rebuilding of the walls of Jerusalem in 445 (Neh. 1-7); and 4) the religious reforms and the renewal of the Covenant instituted by Ezra and Nehemiah (Neh. 8-13).

Esther.

The book of Esther is concerned primarily with the story of Esther, the Jewish wife and Queen of the Persian King Ahasuerus. The story portrays the foiling of a plot by Esther and her adoptive guardian, Mordecai, hatched by the evil Haman against the Jews. This account, which shows God's love and care for His people, is greatly venerated by the Jews as the basis for their Feast of Purim.

This book can be divided into four parts: 1) (Ch. 1-2) the setting of the scene in the Court of the King; 2) (Ch. 3-7) the development of the plot and its overthrow by Esther and Mordecai, resulting in the hanging of Haman and his sons; 3) (Ch. 8-10) the destruction of the enemies of the Jews and the institution of the Feast of Purim; and 4) (Ch. 11-16) further additions to the story. [We note here that Chapters 11-16 are not found in the Hebrew Bible, as well as most English Bibles, but form a part of the Orthodox Bible (LXX). In other Bibles, this section constitutes part of the so-

Job.

The book of Job is concerned with the problem of suffering in the world. It does not attempt to explain the mystery of suffering or to justify the ways of God with men, but rather aims to probe the depths of faith in spite of suffering. It is the story of a righteous man, Job, who loses everything in the material and physical sense, but who maintains his faith in God despite his personal sufferings. The Church sees here a parallel between Job and Christ.

The book can be divided into eight parts: 1) Prologue (Ch. 1-2); 2) 1st Cycle of Speeches (Ch. 3-14); 3) 2nd Cycle of Speeches (Ch. 15-21); 4) 3rd Cycle of Speeches (Ch. 22-28); 5) Job's final summary of his case (Ch. 29-31); 6) Elihu's speeches (Ch. 32-37); 7) God's speeches (Ch. 38-42:6); and 8) an Epilogue (Ch. 42:7-20). [We note that the last three verses are found only in the Orthodox Bibles (LXX).]
