House Blessings: Sign up for your home to be blessed. There is a red-covered notebook with "House Blessing" written on it in the vestibule; there is a page for each day, with the available hours, for January and February. Some of that availability may change, so those interested in blessings are encouraged to sign up as soon as possible. The blocked-out times for the available days are on the parish calendar on our website. Just write your name and the time on the given day, and Father will arrange them if there are any timing conflicts due to travel between houses. As usual, do not feed the priest; he is back on his strict regimen and wants to stay there — nor does he require compensation. For those who are new to this, you will need to provide a bowl for Holy Water, have an icon with a candle on a cleared surface, and have a list of names (living and departed) you would like remembered. Also, this is not restricted to Orthodox Christians. Any inquirer is welcome to have their home blessed. If you have further questions, please speak with Father.

The Annual Parish Meeting will take place on Sunday, January 25th, in the temple after the Divine Liturgy. In case of inclement weather, this will occur on Sunday, February 1st.

2026 Parish Council elections will occur at the Annual Parish Meeting in late January. There will be no floor nominations during the meeting. If you would like to nominate someone to serve, please speak with any member of the current Parish Council after ensuring that the nominee is willing to accept.
