The Afterfeast of the Exaltation of the Cross. And the commemoration of the holy Greatmartyr Nicetas (Nikita) the Goth.

Evening Service

At “Lord, I call...,” 6 stikhera, including:

3 stikhera of the Feast in Tone 5: *Special melody: “Rejoice, O life-bearing Cross...”

Rejoice, life-giving Cross! /
Unconquerable trophy of godliness, /
Door of paradise, sustenance of the faithful /
Rampart set about the Church. /
Through thee corruption is utterly destroyed, /
The power of death is swallowed up, /
And we are raised from earth to heaven: /
Invincible weapon, adversary of devils, /
Glory of martyrs, true ornament of saints, haven of salvation ///
Bestowing on the world great mercy.

Rejoice, Cross of the Lord! /
Through thee mankind has been delivered from the curse. /
Shattering the enemy by thine Exaltation, /
O Cross all-venerable, thou art a sign of true joy. /
Thou art our help, thou art the strength of kings, /
The power of righteous men, the majesty of priests. /
All who sign themselves with thee are freed from peril. /
Thou rod of strength under which we like sheep are tended, /
Thou art a weapon of peace round which the angels stand in fear. /
Thou art the divine glory of Christ, ///
Who grants the world great mercy.

Rejoice, guide of the blind, physician of the sick /
And resurrection of all the dead. /
O precious Cross, thou hast lifted us up when we were fallen into mortality. /
Through thee corruption has been destroyed, /
And incorruption has flowered forth; /
We mortal men are made divine and the devil is utterly cast down. /
Seeing thee exalted by the hands of bishops on this day, /
We exalt Him Who was lifted high upon thee, ///
And we venerate thee, plenteously drawing from thee great mercy.

And these 3 stikhera of the saint, in Tone 1: Special melody: "The heavenly ranks..."

Thou wast revealed, O passion-bearing Nicetas /
To be a champion of Christ, the King of all /
Being arrayed in the armor of piety /
As was the mighty Gideon of old, ///
Boldly destroying the armies of the enemy.

O divinely-wise martyr, /
Thou didst wage battle against the enemy /
Armed with thine all-powerful faith in the Savior; /
And having endured thy sufferings /
Thou didst convert them, O wise one, /
To the Creator and Lord of all, ///
Whom they now [faithfully] glorify.

Through thy death, O Martyr /
The barbarians brought glory to Christ /
For thy sufferings proved to be more eloquent than words; /
And having died for the Trinity /
Thou didst receive thy [martyr's] crown, O glorious one, ///
Shining forth in splendor upon the world.

Glory... of the saint, in Tone 6: by Theophanes:

We know thee, O Nicetas, /
As a sufferer for Christ, /
And a luminary of martyrs, /
For thou didst destroy the idols of earthly fame and glory /
And despising the godlessness of thine own father, /
Triumphantly put the barbarians to shame /
By enduring the confession of martyrdom /
Proving thyself a worthy warrior of heaven. /
Pray then for us to the Benefactor of all ///
That He take pity on us and save our souls.

Now and ever... of the Feast, in the Same Tone:

The sayings of the prophets /
Foretold thy holy Wood /
Whereby Adam was set free from the ancient curse of death. /
And today, at the Exaltation of the Cross, all creation raises its voice /
Asking of God plenteous mercy. /
O Master, Who alone art boundless in compassion, ///
Be our atonement and save our souls.

The Cross is raised on high, /
And urges all creation to sing the praises of the undefiled Passion /
Of Him Who was lifted high upon it. /
For there it was that He destroyed our slayer, /
And brought the dead to life again: /
And in His exceeding goodness and compassion made us beautiful, /
Counting us worthy to be citizens of heaven. /
So with rejoicing let us exalt His Name ///
And magnify His surpassing condescension.

Verse: Extol the Lord; worship at His footstool for it is holy.

Moses prefigured thee, O precious Cross, /
When he stretched out his hands on high /
And put Amalek the tyrant to flight. /
Thou art the boast the faithful and the help of the suffering, /
Glory of the apostles, champion of the righteous, /
And preserver of all the saints. /
Beholding thee raised on high, /
Creation rejoices and keeps festival, /
Glorifying Christ, Who in His surpassing goodness, ///
Has through thee joined together that which had been divided.

Verse: God is our King before the ages: He hath wrought salvation in the midst of the earth.

O most precious Cross, /
Attended by ranks of rejoicing angels, /
Thou art exalted today, /
And by divine command thou dost lift up again /
All those who, through the stealing of the fruit, had been made outcasts /
And were sunk in death. /
Now we embracing thee in faith with heart and lips, /
From thee we draw sanctification and cry aloud: /
Exalt Christ, the God most good, ///
And venerate His divine footstool.

For Christ’s Resurrection is renewed /
And the ends of the earth rejoice greatly today; /
